Dedication

We, the class of 1961, hereby dedicate this edition of "The Millerette" to Mr. Orville Howard, who despite his many obligations and responsibilities, has found the time to guide us through our years at Millersburg High School. His unceasing patience and sincere helpfulness have contributed greatly toward the happiness and success of our high school career.

Class History

We started our high school days and our freshman year with 45 members. The class officers were: President, Ron Gardner; Vice-President, Ann Long; Secretary, Sandy McDonald; Treasurer, Elaine Saggars. Student Council representatives were Ray Suter and Lynda Lantz. "If there's something to be done, it will be done by us, the class of '61" was chosen as the class motto. The pink rose was chosen as the class flower. Pink and charcoal were chosen as the class colors. Our money-making project was a bake sale.

We had 41 members in our sophomore class. We started the year by electing the following class officers: President, Ron Garnder; Vice-President, Pat Prough; Secretary, Lynda Lantz; Treasurer, Elaine Saggers. The Student Council representatives were Ray Suter and Patty Hershberger. The money-making project was our Christmas card sale, from which we netted a big profit.

Beginning our junior year we elected the officers as follows: President, Pat Prough; Vice-President, Sandy McDonald; Secretary, Patty Hershberger; Treasurer, Elaine Saggars. The Student Council representatives were Ray Suter and Lynda Lantz. Later in the year, however, Ray Suter was elected as vice-president of Student Council so Clarence Yoder was elected to take his place. We had 40 class members. The class made a Basketball Rooster which was placed in the gym. We presented the play entitled "The State Versus Maxine Lowe." We sold magazines and concessions. Our junior year was highlighted by the Junior-Senior Prom. Our theme was "Dancing in the Dark." It was held in the Masonic Temple in Goshen.

Our last year has been a wonderful one. Our class officers are: President, Ron Green; Vice-President, Clarence Yoder; Secretary, Patty Hershberger; Treasurer, Elaine Saggars. The Student Council representatives are Pat Prough and Jim Larimer. Ron Gardner was elected president of the Student Council and Ray Suter was elected vice-president. We sold candy in November and we had two suppers to make money for our trip. "I'm A Family Crisis" was our senior play. The juniors gave us a very nice reception which preceded our trip to the East. The important dates which we will always remember are these: Baccalaureate on May 21 and Commencement on May 24.

Mr. Howard has been our class sponsor through all 4 years of high school. The class deeply appreciates the time and effort that he was willing to give us.

Thus, we have finished four years of hard work and lots of fun at dear old M.H.S. We shall always be grateful to the people who helped us make these four years very successful.

Class Secretary,

Patty Hershberger

Class Will

I, Jean Bender, will my ability to mispronounce words in history to anyone who would like to entertain the class.

I, Arline Bontrager, will my good times in high school to next year's freshman class.

I, Bonnie Brock, will my love of travel to anyone who stays at home all the time.

I, Ron Gardner, will my pitching ability (?) to Joe Phillips.

I, Ron Green, will my muscles to any girl interested in marrying Clarence Yoder. They will be helpful in catching him.

I, Dennis Hapner, will my track shoes to Jim McDonald. It will help to develop that chest of yours, Jim.

I, Elaine Hartsough, will my ability to keep quiet and stay out of trouble to anyone who dislikes getting bawled out.

I, Levi Hershberger, will my hair to Mr. Plummer.

I, Patty Hershberger, will my baton twirling suit to anyone who wants to have as much fun in it as I did.

I, Tom Hire, will my car to Sharon Nisley to deliver her papers with.

I, Tom Holtzinger, will my height to next year's basketball team.

I, Dave Honderich, will my cornet to anyone who thinks he might be able to play it.

I, Judy Hull, will my lack of height to Ron Stiver. With yours and mine we could both be tall basketball players.

I, Verl Kauffman, will "The Turtle" to anybody who thinks he needs it worse than I do.

I, Lynda Lantz, will my glasses to anyone who can keep them on longer than I can.

I, Jim Larimer, will my interest in sports to anyone who will have as much fun in them as I have had.

I, Pat Leek, will a toupee to Mr. Ward. He's getting a little thin on top.

I, Larry Long, will my curly hair to Ivan Rockenbaugh.

I, Phyllis Long, will my naturally curly hair to anyone who likes to wear her hair style the same way all the time.

I, Sandy McDonald, will my naturally wavy hair to someone (1) who detests nightly "pin-ups" (2) who wouldn't mind having the same hair style for years and years.

I, Bruce McKibbin, will my Osgood Slaughter, broken ankles, and yellow jaundice to any athlete who would like to be laid up half of the time.

I, John Phillips, will my ability to be jack-of-all-trades, master of none, to Sharon Nisley. Sharon, why don't you fail in something, just to see what it is like?

I, Jerry Prough, will my ability to drive race horses to anyone who has enough nerve to sit behind them.

I, Pat Prough, will my job to anyone who wants to study in front of a cash register.

I, Pat Rippey, will my ability to wear shoes under size twelve to Rick Keim.

I, Judy Rockenbaugh, will my quietness to anyone who wants it.

I, Elaine Saggars, will my ability to get into crazy predicaments to anyone who can do a better job getting out of them than I did.

I, Nancy Sparklin, will all the fun I have had in high school to all "future Millersburg High School students."

I, Ray Suter, will my Chevy to anyone who can afford to keep gas in it and pay the insurance.

I, Blaine Vance, will my gift (?) of gab to Robert Beiler.

I, Dave Worthman, will the "Red Cloud" to anyone who likes the color of red primer.

I, Clarence Yoder, will my ability to be kissed by four senior cheerleaders at the same time and not like it to Vernon Sheley.

I, Max Yoder, will Donna Dunlap to nobody.

I, Wayne Yoder, will my ability in art class to Terry Bowser. After all, Terry, not everybody can ride on Mr. Plummer's shoulders.

Prophecy

I am a part-time secretary for Henry Ford, III, in Detroit, Michigan. The other day while opening Mr. Ford's mail, I came across a letter addressed to me. It was from Pat Hershberger, who is a very successful reporter for the New York SUN TIMES. She told me to give each of our former classmates a copy of her letter. I decided to send one copy to our Alma Mater to put in the annual. Here is the letter:

"After ten years of being a reporter, my editor gave me an ideal assignment. I was to look up my former classmates and do a story on them for LIFE magazine. I was naturally delighted and lost no time in catching the earliest plane to South Bend, Indiana. As I entered the plane, I was met by a smiling stewardess who was--you guessed it!--none other than Elaine Saggars. I had a very interesting conversation with her and she told me that Blaine Vance was the pilot of the plane. I didn't have an opportunity to say much to him except "hello." It was a fine ride, though, with only a slightly bumpy landing.

After reaching South Bend, I caught a taxi to take me to the bus terminal. I was surprised to see Larry Long was driving the taxi. After only a few blocks, I realized that Larry was still the same old Larry. I'd recognize his driving anywhere. I had the odd sensation that I was still flying. Arriving safely at the terminal, I bade Larry a rather wobbly goodby and got on a bus going to Goshen.

Arriving in Goshen, I was rather hungry, so I went into the Olympia. I found Pat Leek behind the counter. She said she had taken over the place and that it was quite profitable.

The next day I went to Millersburg and was met by Tom Hire, who was the mayor of Millersburg. He was very kind, and asked me to have dinner with him and his wife that night. I accepted the invitation. Tom told me that Dennis Hapner was now the principal of Millersburg high school, and the major subject taught is "Jokes and Their Origin." Tom also said that Ray Suter had taken over his Dad's painting business and was doing well for himself. I also discovered that Tom Holtzinger is the chairman of the Millersburg Improvements Committee, and the citizens of Millersburg are having a rather hard time keeping up with all his new projects. Mayor Hire told me that there were quite a few former classmates of ours working and living in Goshen, so I went in to find them.

The next morning, I stopped in at the bank to cash a check. There I found out that Ron Gardner was the president of the bank. Ron told me that if it hadn't been for Dave Worthman, the County Sheriff, his bank would have been burglarized many times. It seems Dave invented a sure-fire burglar trap, made on the same principle as a mouse trap.

I developed quite a toothache that afternoon, and so I looked in the yellow pages for a dentist. I discovered that Max Yoder had taken over Dr. Riddle's business on South Main, and was considered one of the best dentists in the country. So I went down there and was met by his receptionist, who was Pat Rippey. I was rather surprised at this, but Max told me that since he couldn't hear too well anyway, he wanted someone who could keep his mouth shut, and Pat was just the man for the job. After getting my tooth attended to by Max, I went down to Goshen College where Tom had told me Bonnie Brock was a seminary student. They told me that Bonnie had transferred to a college in Illinois.

Since I was out in that part of town anyway, I decided to drive down to the hospital. There I found out that Wayne Yoder had become a top-notch brain surgeon. I also found out that the head nurse at the hospital was Nancy Sparklin. These busy people didn't have time to talk much, so I decided to leave. Just as I started down the hall, I saw Pat Prough being wheeled toward the isolation ward. It seems she had just been admitted with her 25th case of measles. They told me that they had a room reserved for her every year at a certain time and she hadn't failed them so far. They wouldn't let me close enough to talk to her, but she seemed to be in good spirits. Of course, you've got to take the fact into consideration that this was a familiar routine to her.

I was getting rather tired, since there was so much footwork involved in finding my classmates, so I decided to take a little vacation and go to see the White Sox play the Yankees. When I got to Chicago, I looked up Phyllis Long, who was living there because her husband taught agriculture at South Side High School. She decided to go to the ballgame with me, so she called up a sitter for her four-year-old triplets, Harry, Terry and Berry, and her one-year-old daughter Sary.

When we got to the ball park, we recognized Jim Larimer right away. He was the umpire and was bending over to dust off the home plate. We were told it hadn't taken him long to make the big time, because his instructors liked the way he talked about baseball and facts.

During the game, we kept hearing one woman's voice above everything else. We followed our ears and finally saw the person who belonged to the voice. Judy Hall had married the White Sox outfielder and, understandably, she was his number one fan.

After the game, Phyllis and I went to a very nice restaurant to eat. There we came across Bruce McKibbin, who was employed as a singing waiter there. He told us he was soon leaving for New York to be on the David Honderich show. Dave has taken over Ed Sullivan's old show. We congratulated him and told him to say "hello" to Dave for us.

After eating, Phyllis said she had to get home to her children. So I told her goodby and caught a plane back to Fort Wayne. I had phoned Lynda Lantz from Chicago and she and her husband and two children met me at the airport. From there we went out to their home in the country. She told me that they had gone to the state fair the week before and had seen Jerry Prough in the harness races. I think he makes quite a bit of money, and he certainly travels a great deal. Lynda also told me that Sandy McDonald had won a solid gold trophy for setting the world record for flag-pole sitting. I hear she is making personal appearances here and abroad since her feat.

The next morning I left Fort Wayne and took a bus to Topeka. I was told that Clarence Yoder was coaching basketball at the high school. There I discovered that they had won more games since Clarence started coaching than ever before. They average at least five wins a year now. Clarence told me that he had just had a letter from John Phillips, and John has won the coveted award of Farmer of the Year. He is said to have the most efficient farm in the world.

I was told upon investigation, that a few of my former classmates were abroad. I hopped the next plane to London, and upon my arrival I decided to go to see a stage play. To my surprise, I found Verl Kauffman and Arline Bontrager playing the leads. To date, they are the biggest stars in Europe, and the richest!

Verle had told me that Ron Green was in Paris, so that was my next stop. I found out that I was just in time to see Ron get crowned as "Mr. Physique of the World." An interesting side-light to his story is that he is also a mathematics teacher at a high school in Detroit, Michigan.

I was having a marvelous time on the Riviera until I got a letter from my boss reminding me that I had a job to do. He informed me that I wasn't getting it done by running up my expense account to an all-time high. I reluctantly went to the Paris airport and purchased a ticket to Los Angeles, California. There I found Elaine Hartsough had become the first woman manager of the Los Angeles Angels. Elaine told me that Judy Rockenbaugh had become a beatnik after inventing a new kind of coffee that was very popular with that group of people.

I went to see Judy, and she told me that, like man, Levi Hershberger was a professional photographer at Hollywood for 20th Century Fox.

After that I caught the plane to Detroit where I visited you, as you well remember. Well, I have to rush now.

Best Wishes,

Pat

I was very glad to find out that all our classmates are doing so well, and I'm sure we're all grateful to Pat for telling us what she found out.

The seventh grade has had an exciting year learning to be a part of the high school, to study independently, and to take our responsibility as school citizens. In the fall we had a Gypsy Party and in the spring we had an outdoor party. Exciting to us were elections, cheer sessions, movies, Christmas program and party, and everything that was different.

SEATED: Jim Larimer, Pat Prough, Secretary; Ray Suter, Vice-President; Ronnie Gardner, President; Mr. Ward, and Mr. Howard, Adviser. STANDING: Rachel Yoder, Roger Rink, Frank Fetsch, Steve Hire, Vicki Hartsough, Wendell Bailey, Treasurer; Sharon Nisley, Glenda Kauffman, and Dennis Leinbach.

The Student Council opened the year with sixteen members. It is comprised of two representatives from each class, from seventh to twelfth grades, plus a President and Vice-President elected by the student body. During the year the Student Council has been operating the check-room and sponsoring the assembly programs.

Mr. David Williams presented the Wonders of Liquid Air.

Mr. Kenneth Goodman, a renowned organist, gave an outstanding presentation of Classical, Semi-Classical and Popular Music.

Mr. John Shiraef gave a talk on his trip to Europe and his experiences behind the Iron Curtain.

OFFICERS: Wanda Kauffman, Corresponding Secretary; Patty Hershberger, Treasurer; Miss Aten, Sponsor; Pat Prough, President; Sharon Nisley, Vice-President; Glenda Kauffman, Recording Secretary.

The Sunshine Society had an enrollment of 44 members for the year. On October 23, the society initiated the new members into the group with a formal initiation at the United Church of Christ in Millersburg. The girls each had an Ideal Lady. Special activities sponsored by the society were a skit for a pep session, booster charts for the sports teams, cake sales at ballgames, a Valentines Dance, chapel programs, and a dress-up day. At Christmas the society held several work meetings to make house slippers for the Mental Institution at Fort Wayne. The society made a donation to the Riley Fund. In the spring it held a Tea to honor our Ideal Ladies and Mothers. The special project of the year was to elect a Mr. Personality, Dennis Leinbach, to represent the society.

The enrollment of the chapter is now 9 Chapter Farmers, 14 Greenhands, and 1 Honorary Chapter Farmer. The new offices of Parliamentarian and Photographer were brought into the organization this year. In May we elected a Chapter Sweetheart who is Patty Hershberger. Patty was presented a white corduroy Chapter Sweetheart Jacket. Our two main summer activities were a 4 day trip to Otsego Lake State Park in Northern Michigan in the latter part of August and an experimental plot of corn and soybeans. The Chapter participated in soil judging, taking second in the county, a blue ribbon at the District, and a white ribbon at the State. The Chapter won first in the District II Talent Contest. The act was called, "Rastus Goes to the Circus". The members participating were Dennis Hapner, David Hondrich, Levi Hershberger, and Mike Zollinger. The main fund raising activity was a slave auction.

The 18 members of the Library Club have had a very busy year. In November they put on "Book Week" activities. Each member gave at least one book review so that every elementary room had one book review each day. There was a poster contest for all the grades and high school. The week was climaxed by a movie book review of "And Now Miguel." Each month there is a club meeting, and each member must mend one book a week to be in good standing. At these meetings library techniques and book reviews are given. Two meetings have been socials, one at Christmas with a party and the other a Spring Fun Fest.

"At the time, I didn't know if this expansion thing would go through or not," he added. "Now, with the new teams in the league, it would have meant I would be away from home more often, so I decided to chuck it."

McDougald also admitted there was a "great possibility" he was one of the 15 Yankee players who would be made available to the two new AL teams at a draft next week in Boston. The Yankee front office, of course, wouldn't admit this but the new Washington and Los Angeles clubs were ready to make Gil their No. 1 pick.

However, McDougald obviously felt that if he couldn't play for the Yankees, he would hang up his spikes.

Bruce McKibbin and Ray Suter supplied the offensive impetus and these two lads plus Max and Wayne Yoder and Ronnie Green halted the Concord offense with a tight 2-1-2 zone defense. McKibbin finished the night with 24 points and Suter had 15. Ron Iwema was the only consistent scorer for Concord with 21 markers. Both he and McKibbin maintained their 20-plus averages this season.

Minutemen Are Upset On Home Floor Friday

McKibbin's 24 And Suter's 15 Points Offset Iwema's 21

Coach Bill Robinson and Millersburg Millers survived a last-ditch, 12-second, four-point spurt by startled Concord Friday night as they shocked the Minutemen into a 50-49 defeat in the Concord gym.

The startling upset brought to an end Concord's domination over county foes (with the exception of Elkhart) for the past two full seasons and at the same time ended a long home-floor winning streak for the Minutemen that extended back to Jan. 31, ... when New Paris walked off with a ... victory at Dunlap. In addition, the Millers gained possession of the Bill Smoker traveling trophy that has been in the Concord trophy case about two years. The defeat was the second for Concord in five games.

The Millers, now 6-2 for the season, were satisfied to wait for the good shot and hit 15 of 39 during the thriller in which they trailed by as much as 12-4 in the second period and then led the rest of the way after taking a ... lead midway through the ... period. Concord had four ... field goals and hit 11 of 17 ... tries but Millersburg benefited from 20 of 36 free throws.

Bruce McKibbin and Ray Suter supplied the offensive impetus and these two lads plus Max and Wayne Yoder and Ronnie Green halted the Concord offense with a tight 2-1-2 zone defense. McKibbin finished the night with 24 points and Suter had 15. Ron Iwema was the only consistent scorer for Concord with 21 markers. Both he and McKibbin maintained their 20-plus averages this season.

McKibbin And Suter

Iwema supplied Steve Hoogenboom with a nice pass as Concord pulled to a 37-35 deficit in the opening moments of the fourth period but here again it was McKibbin and Suter who kept the Millers in charge. McKibbin hit one free throw and then Suter missed his first of one-and-one but Iwema stepped into the lane too soon and Suter took advantage of the break and connected twice and added a goal for a 43-37 lead with five minutes left.

McKibbin scored four points to Iwema's two the next two minutes and Kauffman's one-hander rebound slap went through with 2:48 left but Concord still trail... 47-43. Easy For Concord Concord rolled with ease over Wakarusa after building a 21-13 lead at the end of the first period. The Minutemen led by 16 at the half and had a comfortable 63-43 lead going into the final eight minutes. Coach Cliff Murray pulled his regulars with 4:10 left and the Minutemen ahead 72-51. It was Waka's fifth straight defeat.

Iwema had only four points the first period but added 10, eight, and seven in successive quarters for his 29. The Minutemen started off with a man-to-man defense, then moved to a zone three minutes after the opening whistle and pulled away. Coach Dick Johnson alternated Ronnie George and Larry Weaver but Iwema was too much to handle.

WAYNE YODER DRIVES FOR TWO—This was typical action in the first half of the Millersburg-Jimtown county tourney game Wednesday night at Elkhart. Millersburg's Wayne Yoder (22) is driving in for another goal as he tallied the first seven Millersburg points and had 16 for the evening in a fine performance. Wayne had nine of Millersburg's 11 first-quarter points and 15 in the first half. Jimtown's Ron Wenger (34) is trailing Wayne. Millersburg squeaked out a 60-59 victory. —Goshen News Photo.

Max Yoder Gets 29 Points In Millersburg Win

MILLERSBURG — Led by Max Yoder's 29 points and three other players in double figures, the Millersburg Millers defeated Wawaka, 83-67, here Friday night.

This was Yoder's best night of the season, but Coach Bill Robinson was equally pleased with the support from the other starters.

Franks Gets 31

Bruce McKibben, the county's fourth leading scorer, fell below his 20.6 per game average, with 11 points. He now has 209 points for the season and a 19.9 average.

Gary Franks of Wawaka was high point man for the night with 31 points on 13 baskets and five free throws.

The game was nip and tuck during the first period, with Wawaka converting a three point play as the gun sounded to give the Noble county school a three point lead.

MILLERS WIN FIRST COUNTY BASEBALL CROWN BY BLANKING MIDDLEBURY, 3-0.

Ronnie Gardner pitched the Millersburg Millers to their first Elkhart County baseball title when he distributed six hits over seven innings and shut out Middlebury, 3-0, at the Millersburg diamond.

Bob Stiver, Millersburg second baseman, played the important role at the plate for Coach Bill Robinson's nine, getting two clutch runs.

Middlebury left eight runners stranded in the important battle. Both teams played error-less ball and Leonard Beachy pitched a good game in losing, giving up six hits and walking just two. He went the distance on the mound for Coach John Milholland. The Millers drew first blood when Ray Suter opened the bottom of the second inning with a single. Max Yoder sacrificed him to second and Stiver then crached his first hit of the day, into left center field, scoring Suter.

Ron Green then clouted the game's longest blow when he knocked a fast ball into deep center field into the weeds for an automatic triple, scoring Stiver. Max Yoder scored the third run of the game in the sixth when he reached first on a fielder's choice that put Suter out at second. Yoder stole second and was singled in by Stiver. Miller's final standing: 7-2.

This year we have 26 pupils in our class. We have the hardest geography class in the school. We have studied 41 nations and world history. We have connected our history class and art class by making murals.

The sixth grade is the best grade in the school. We have the most subjects, the most textbooks, and the BEST teacher. The pupils can hardly wait to get in or out of this class.

Our work generally progressed as other classes have in the fifth grade in former years. We have new Arithmetic books on a rental basis. So far care of these books is satisfactory. (Much better than care of our own books.) Arithmetic, Geography, English, History books are now rented from the school. New Science and Health books will be added for the 1961-1962 school year.

We used colored 2 x 2 slides along with our Geography books, making the work more interesting.

The fourth grade began the year with an enrollment of 20 pupils, two of whom were new, one pupil left us and another moved in so our ranks still contains 20 pupils; 8 boys and 12 girls.

We had new rental arithmetic books this year. History is a new subject for the pupils of the fourth grade. We are studying about Famous Americans in history.

In conjunction with our history and geography, those children who have TV in their homes have been enjoying the TV series entitled "Expedition" and "Expedition Local", most Tuesday evenings at 7:00 P. M. and sharing reports about them with the class.

The class gave several choral readings in the Christmas program.

Six students had perfect records neither absent nor tardy at mid-term.

Our class enrollment is 29 this year. Many library books were read during the year. The first semester the class averaged 39 books per person. Each student keeps a record of the books he reads. They wrote book reports and gave oral reports to the class. Miss Kauffman read several MRS. PIGGLE WIGGLE books to the class. The boys have enjoyed playing basketball and softball with the fourth grade boys during their recesses. The new arithmetic books taught us multiplications and divisions numbers facts through the fives.

Guest speakers throughout the year were Mrs. Robert Long, Mr. Ward, and Mr. Thomas. Little excurisions included a trip to Fred Rink's maple sugar camp.

Our enrollment for grade two is thirty-five this year. Several in our group moved into our community after school started. One moved to Goshen after school started.

In the second grade we have been making spelling booklets each six weeks. These booklets are taken home with our report cards.

One of our biggest achievements in second grade is the changing from printing (manuscript) to Cursive writing. This kind of writing makes us feel we are really growing up.

In September, 1960, thirty-four children enrolled in grade one. There have been one gain and two losses. Our first grade students have read several primers, first readers, and many library books. Also, reading in social studies has proved to be interesting when the children can make or do things related to the part of life they study. The pupils understand and read numbers to 100; simple addition and subtraction facts; and have a simple working knowledge of money.

On rainy days, the children interest themselves with some of the games and toys which Mr. Ward purchased for our room.

At Christmas, we participated in the school program by being Christmas Tree Elves. We have enjoyed many birthday parties.

The annual staff would like to thank all those concerned, directly and indirectly, in making our 1960-1961 Millerette possible.

We would especially like to thank Mr. Lloyd "Shorty" Grandstaff, an avid Millersburg fan, who made so many sports snaps, senior personality pictures and classroom pictures available for our yearbook. He has been very willing in giving of his time and talents, for which we say "Thank You!"

We also appreciate the work Mr. Arthur Long, Jr. has done for us.
